

DANIELA CAST

Hailing from the vibrant shores of Puerto Madryn, Argentina, Daniela Cast is an DJ and producer whose life has been steeped in the harmonious embrace of music and art. Born in 1985, her destiny was shaped at a tender age of 3 when she stumbled upon her godfather's vintage record collection – an enchanting encounter that kindled her lifelong love affair with music and vinyl. Those early days, spent tickling the ivory keys of a school piano during breaks, were merely prologue to the captivating voyage that awaited her. Fast forward to 2009, and she embarked on her journey as a professional DJ, igniting dance floors with her infectious energy and innovative sounds.

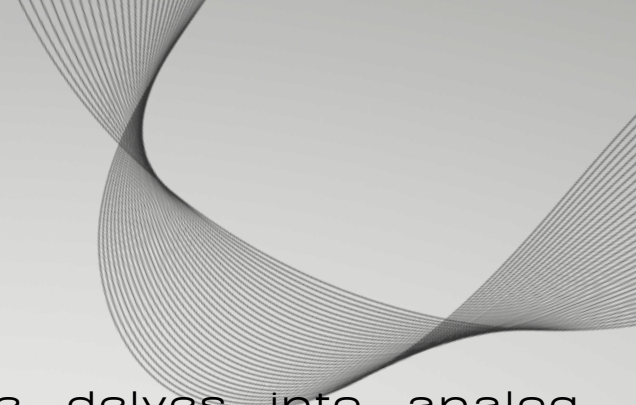

At the age of 15 she moved to United States where her connection to music deepened through a wide range of influences including hip-hop, trip-hop, dub, funk, darker rock and alternative metal shaped by the cultural diversity of her background.

In 2007, she returned to Argentina, dedicating herself to her academic pursuits.

Daniela studied Graphic Design at the University of Champagnat, earning her college degree and laying the foundation for her creative endeavors.

In 2011, Daniela's passion for music led her to further her education at EMBA [School of Music in Buenos Aires]. Here, she delved deeper into the intricacies of sound, enhancing her already well-rounded musical background.

Daniela Cast's DJ sets are an eclectic fusion of house, techno, and all that lies in between. Groove is her signature, pulsating through every beat and defining the essence of her mixes. Daniela's sessions bring a serious yet energetic vibe to the dance floor. With intricate rhythms, deep grooves, strong basslines, and a clear club orientation, her sets captivate audiences and keep the dancefloor always alive and moving, creating a groove that transcends genres. Whether spinning vinyl or crafting her own productions, Daniela creates an electrifying atmosphere, ensuring an unforgettable experience for all.

In her musical explorations, she delves into analog machines, crafting compositions pulsating with energy and authenticity. Seamlessly blending techno, house, and funk with hip-hop inspired melodies, her tracks captivate with deep bass lines and dynamic percussion lines. With analog synthesizers as her tools, she creates captivating sounds, enticing bodies to dance and minds to wander.

In 2013, she embarked on a new chapter in Europe, starting in Barcelona, where she held a residency at Reckon parties. Now calling Berlin home for six years, Daniela has become a fixture at renowned venues like Club Der Visionaere and Hoppetosse.

Her influence extends across continents, with performances in clubs from America to Australia, including S.A.S.H. in Sydney and Breakfast Club in Melbourne.

In 2019, Daniela took her passion to new heights, founding Cat Hat Records and hosting her own parties at Berlin's beloved Club Der Visionaere. These events have become synonymous with smiles and full-on vibes, marking Daniela as a driving force in Berlin's electronic music scene.

A constant presence in the electronic scene, Daniela's music has been a staple, her commitment to quality unwavering, and her groove infectious. With an ever-evolving sound that transcends borders and genres, Daniela Cast is a force to be reckoned with in the global electronic music scene. Her journey, marked by consistency, innovation, and a deep connection with her audience, continues to shape the future of sound.
